

Availability of Institutional and Financial Aid Information

Northwestern Technological Institute can provide students information regarding any Federal, State, Local, and Instructional programs. For assistance in obtaining institutional or financial aid information, students may contact a financial aid advisor at (248) 358-4006 during regular business hours.